

Determining Eligibility

Member Eligibility Inquiries

Verifying eligibility is essential to determine coverage, deductibles, and copayments. An ID card does not verify that the member's coverage is still in effect. Harvard Pilgrim recommends that providers verify member eligibility, electronically or by telephone, at the point of service. Ideally, eligibility should be verified:

- When the appointment is scheduled, and
- At the time of service, and again
- At the time billing occurs.

Electronic Verification

Thirteen months of eligibility is available online. You can validate eligibility for the current date or a prior date. Future eligibility cannot be guaranteed.

- Member's identity (three options)
 - Last name (minimum of two letters required, full name may be used), or
 - Member Harvard Pilgrim ID number, or
 - Member Social Security number (The member's Social Security number does not appear on HPHConnect. However, if the provider knows it and uses it to inquire, HPHConnect can locate the member record.)

Member-specific benefit information including copayment and coinsurance, if applicable, is shown. HPHConnect will display member's eligibility for the specific date of service.
